WEBSITE
www.sdb.uscourts.gov

The Court's website includes a variety of items, such as bankruptcy basics; the local rules; general orders; sample forms; decisions; case information; court calendars; practice pointers; contact information for the Court, United States Trustee, United States Attorney Office, and the case trustees; and links to other websites of interest.

Questions concerning use of the website – or suggestions for improvement – may be directed to Harland Danielsen, Systems Manager, or Charles Jones, Systems Administrator (their contact information is provided above).

CM/ECF
Case Management/Electronic Case Files

The CM/ECF system allows anyone with access to the internet to obtain information regarding bankruptcy cases, including dockets, claims registers, mailing lists, and lists of cases filed by date. CM/ECF may also be used by attorneys admitted to the Federal Bar for the District of South Dakota and individuals employed by such attorneys – once they have been trained and certified – to file documents with the Court electronically. Additional information is available on our website. Questions regarding CM/ECF may be directed to Harland Danielsen, Systems Manager, or Charles Jones, Systems Administrator (see e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, and mailing addresses shown above).

VCIS
Voice Case Information System
(800) 768-6218

VCIS allows anyone with a touch-tone telephone to obtain information concerning a bankruptcy case, including the case number, the debtor's name, the filing date, the chapter, the debtor's attorney's name, the trustee's name, the judge, and the current status. This service is available 24 hours a day, every day except for occasional maintenance periods. Additional information is available on our website. Questions concerning its use may be directed to Harland Danielsen, Systems Manager, or Charles Jones, Systems Administrator (see e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, and mailing addresses shown above).
